

About Us

FrontPorch is an investment ecosystem of philanthropists, seasoned entrepreneurs, and investors who are experts at building great companies. Our investment philosophy is rooted in the preservation and sustainability of the small business infrastructure. We have committed capital across 20 executive and institutional partners with hundreds of years of combined experience.

Differentiated Approach

Our focus at FrontPorch is to acquire a single business located in the continental United States. We employ a fully integrated investing model where our team leads and executes on every aspect of the transaction lifecycle. We target platforms that would ordinarily be considered tuck-ins or add-ons for traditional private equity.
